“ My thoughts are with all of you. I was so glad Billy took me to see Phyllis and have lunch together before she left New York. We were very close when we were children and used to spend weeks together in the summer. I remember her home in East Meadow before she moved to East Northport. We grew apart when she went to college and I got married but we would talk occasionally as our families grew. We had a lot of fun when we had our family reunions that my brother, Pete, arranged. Also when we went on a cruise with Jackie, Pete and Hilde, Bill and I. Phyllis wound up on a different bus coming back to the ship after a tour. Her bus broke down and she thought they would miss the ship departure but the ship waited because there was an entire bus of passengers. As you can imagine Phyllis let the crew know her feelings. We had such a good time on that cruise.
I know you will all miss her. Love Geri Green
