

Phyllis Freeman Sells

June 7, 1938 - August 13, 2019

Phyllis Freeman Sells, 81 years old of Salisbury, passed away on August 13, 2019 at Glenn A. Kiser Hospice House. She was born June 7, 1938 in Davie County, she was the daughter of the late Frances Beck Freeman and Madison Craig Freeman.

She was a graduate of Cooleemee High School and worked for Rowan County Schools as Food Service Manager until her retirement. She was a wonderful mother and a friend to everyone she met. Phyllis enjoyed spending time with her classmates and taking trips. Known as Mimi to her grandchildren and great grandchildren, she brought so much joy to her life. She was an active member of Central United Church of Christ.

In addition to her parents Phyllis was preceded in death by her husband Lindsay Leevan Sells, Sr.; brothers Ronnie Freeman of Arkansas and Craig Freeman of Mocksville.

Visitation and Service: Visitation 3-5:00 PM Saturday, August 17, at Summersett Funeral Home with service following at 5:00 PM in the Summersett Memorial Chapel conducted by Minister Tim Lively.

The Sells family wishes to thank Dr. Brinkley, numerous friends, church families and the staff at Novant Hospice. The care, concern and love shown toward our family was greatly appreciated.
