

Phyllis Terrell Parham

September 30, 1923 - January 23, 2013

Phyllis Terrell Parham, 89, of Salisbury passed away Wednesday, January 23, 2013 at The Lutheran Home at Trinity Oaks after a brief illness.

Mrs. Parham was born September 30, 1923 the daughter of the late Rachel McCracken Terrell and Glenn Terrell. She was a graduate of Western Carolina University and received her Master of Education degree from University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. She worked as a teacher at Frank B. John and Overton School. Phyllis enjoyed Bridge, Volunteer work and the many items she had collected over the years. She loved the Western part of North Carolina as that was her heritage. She enjoyed traveling through the US and abroad after her retirement with her husband. They visited every state in the Union except Alaska. They also traveled the world visiting seventeen foreign countries. They revisited the World War II sights where he served at base and over which he flew. She was a member of First United Methodist Church of Salisbury.

Preceding her in death in addition to her parents were her husband, Harold Parham (The love of her life) on April 14, 1998; brother, Luke Terrell; and special friend, Ray Coggins.

Those left to cherish her memories are her son, Jonathan Parham and wife Mariann Parham of Salisbury; granddaughter, Mary Margaret Barfield and husband Matt of Albemarle; great-grandchildren, Mac and Millie Mae Barfield; brother, Joe Terrell and wife Frieda of Waynesville; sister-in-law, Jackie Terrell of Atlanta, GA.

Visitation: 10-11:00 AM Friday, January 25, 2013 at Summersett Funeral Home.

Service: 11:00 AM Friday, January 25, 2013 at Summersett Memorial Chapel conducted by Rev. Don Haynes with burial to follow at City Memorial Park.

Memorials: American Heart Association, in care of stroke victims, 222 S. Church St. Suite 303, Charlotte, NC 28202.
