“ *Ralph had his spot where he sat on the 3rd from the back pew on the right hand side He always gave me a big Hello He was such a happy soul and so faithful to Sacred Heart church and its parishioners. When I came home from the hospital after having heart surgery there was a bouquet of yellow roses waiting for me from Ralph. At my daughter Michele's house Ralph and I would sit on the couch and catch up on the news.
Tom and I are going to miss you Ralph. You shared your life and your family with us. You were so Proud of your grandchildren and so Proud of your children.I am glad you have joined your Angelina.
