“ Sincere condolences to Randy’s family. Randy has been a faithful friend to me at First Baptist (where I was organist for 30 years), at Trinity Oaks while I was a patient, and my “hugging” friend at Senior Adult Ministry. He loved all of us as “Mayor of the Lutheran Home”, and was always a special friend, caring about our health. His Spirit was inspiring. He will be missed by all who knew him. His welcome in Glory where is eternally loved is to be celebrated.

Randy will be greatly missed at First Baptist Salisbury. His love for his church , his Lord & Savior & Mom were first in his life . He loved being able to worship & volunteer alongside his church family. Heaven definitely is a little brighter today if that is even possible. He is walking the streets of gold & taking it all in after hearing Welcome Home , my good & faithful servant!

I have known Randy for many years seeing him at Trinity Oaks. Always enjoyed visiting with him. I also knew his father who was a kind and gentle man. Unfortunately the flu kept me from attending the service.
