“ My mother was the most gracious loving person I have ever known. Her love and kindness never stopped with a blood barrier, she had wonderful daughter and son in laws whom she loved very much and thought of as her daughters and sons (or her boyfriends). Barbara, the late Tapio, Wendell, Tony, Cathy (who left us all too soon), Jim, and Melissa. Along with some of the blended families she not only gained more grandchildren and great grand children, she was adored by these new additions to her family and took pride in being "Mom" or Grandma Becky" to all. She was surrounded by love and had a world of love to give to all that touched her life.
