“ To The Tolbert Family:

How grieved I was to learn about the death of your loved one and I would like to extend my condolences to your family.

I too know what it's like to lose a family member in death; because death affects all man-kind, this makes it our worst enemy. We can be sure that Jehovah God and his son Christ Jesus understand our emotions during such stressful times. God even promises in his written word (The Bible)that He is soon going to get rid of this enemy (death) At Revelation 21:4 He says that He is going to wipe away all tears from our eyes and death will be no more. We can be assured of this promise because the Bible says that God cannot tell a lie.

So until this future promise becomes a reality may you partake of the comfort that comes from family, friends, and most of all the peace that Jehovah God offers us during our difficult times of need.

Sincerely Yours:
