“ Cooley was one of my dearest friends. We last saw him before his court date. We didn't find out until today what happened. I am very sad. We had been trying to find out what had happened but only has his home number as a contact. We will go and see his dad. I know I will see him when the Lord returns, until then rest in His peace my friend and brother

“ I just wanted to convey my deepest sympathy on the loss of Mr. Cooley. I have not seen Richard in quite awhile, but none the less saddened to hear of his passing. I have good memories of the whole Cooley family from Enon Baptist church where we all attended as children into young adults. Richard was always fun to be around.##imported-begin##Mike Trendel##imported-end##
