“ For all those sweltering summers, all those cold winter days running in the snow and cold. Two obsessed joggers making it in for the last mile. You were a great running mate and an even better boss. Bless you Kelly. I hope you have found your peace. I'll be leaving my last pair of worn jogging shoes next to your grave. You'll understand. I can't think of a better memorial. Goodbye old friend.

“ Richard and I crossed paths several years ago because of our love for running. At times we talked, and I discovered a delightful and caring man. I always honked when I saw him out for a run. Richard would give me a wave and a smile, bringing God’s love into the moment. That same God now holds him close in love. My prayers are with you all.

“ Richard touched the lives of so many in Salisbury and his time on this earth leaves longtime friends with wonderful memories. When our paths crossed the conversation was as if we had just talked the day before. I had the privilege of working and riding with “Kelly” and his passion for motorcycles was contagious. Because of his influence riding remains a passion of mine some 44 years later.

Our heartfelt condolences to his family! You are in our prayers and thoughts as we remember Richard’s warmth, quick wit and passion for life.

“ Richard was my cousin,, his mom & my mom were sisters. Pearl Geneva Williams Reel. We moved to Topsail Island when I was 11 years old, but I didn't see him for many years. Uncle Bennie Williams basically introduced me to him once,, I enjoyed talking with him. He was on my mind frequently when I was in Salisbury visiting my brother Nathan, I knew him to be a very caring man. I pray that his loved ones will find that our Lord has Richard in his loving arms. They're in my prayers also. With my love,, Dennis C Reel (Deno)

“ I was in the ASU Bachelor of Technology group with Richard when we graduated in 1989. Our group went to Washington, DC, about a week after it was declared the deadliest city in America. Regardless of the possible danger, Richard got up early to run before our class woke up and started visiting the sites, including a meeting with Elizabeth Dole who was Secretary of Labor at the time. The fifteen of us became a family during those three years. May God bless his family and friends.

“ Richard Kelly was a man of honor. He always showed me tremendous respect. I shall miss him bringing Cody Boy to the church office after Cody had chased little lizards in the parking lot. I will say to him as he often said to me "You rock!". I ask for God's peace and comfort to Richard's family and friends.

“ To paraphrase an Old Irish Blessing, "May the sun shine warm upon your face, the rain fall soft upon your fields, and until we meet again, May God hold you in the palm of His hand". Rest in Peace, Richard...you were a lovely, generous and kind neighbor to all of us, especially our children, when you would surprise them with the many movie discs that you would leave in our mailbox. We still have them to this day! Milford Knoll will never be the same without you. We all love and miss you! Hugs to you, Jane

“ Truly, a piece of Salisbury tradition has passed. Whether one knew Richard or not, nearly everyone who is a resident has driven by the running man while driving through some part of town. And, that was only one way in which he inspired folks. His dedication to his own health surely shamed me in my carelessness. I knew Richard for many years to be a principled man who could stand for his principles with a cool head and a kind word. I hurt for him when he lost dear Sandy. But, he went on, even when his own health was threatened. A thought just occurred to me: I wonder if, when I enter Heaven, as I am taking my first tour around, might I see a man running among the street system there, and recognize him to be my brother Richard? That will not be a surprise.
