Tribute Wall

“ Dear Family of Mr. Robert Bradley, I am so sorry to hear of the death of your beloved father, grandfather, and friend. I work with Kae at Wachovia and was deeply saddened to hear of his recent death. My prayer for your family is that you will be encouraged that you will see him once again in eternity...as I know that he was a man of faith. May the memories you have of him continue to keep him alive in your hearts until that time arrives and may his spirit for living and loving be a pleasant reminder of how he lived his life here on this earth. “ Robert , Stephen & families

We are so sorry to read of Bob's death. There are so many memories of the fun times we had together celebrating holidays , ballgames and New Years eve at the Salisbury Country Club with your Mom & Dad.

You were both young boys when we left Salisbury . We now live in Greensboro at the Whitestone Retirement Community. Peggy & John Griffin
