“ We will remember Ron for his happy smile. Especially when he stood before the Lord and shared his love of music. His smile would lite up the choir. He was always willing to help someone when he could. He lived his life for the Lord and he will be missed. Jimmy & Joann Rabon

“ Every time I saw Ron, his smile warmed my heart. His love for the Lord through his joyful singing always reminded me of that old song "In My Heart There Sings A Melody". Ron sang with his twinkling eyes, he sang with his smile, and he made the most uncomfortable stranger feel at home. My fondest memory of him, which I will forever remember, was year before last at our Fall Festival. The festivities were almost over, I was close to putting up my paints and Ron sat down in front of me. I asked if he wanted his face painted and with the most sincerity, indicated he had always wondered what he would look like with a mustache A few strokes later, Ron was sporting a whimsical grey and black mustache, eliciting bursts of laughter throughout the FLC. That was the Ron I knew! His Homegoing is certainly our loss, but his anticipated gain, and I know Heaven rejoices with the newest addition to their angelic choir.
