How sweet to be remembered by such a Godly lady. One whom with her husband I still honor to this day with rice krispy treats.

“ My birthday twin, my favorite person to talk about my Gamecocks with, my favorite Croc wearing guy, my stay up late and watch television with... my Uncle Russell. There will never be anyone that compares to you and your quirkiness. I will always keep you and our memories close to my heart. Thank you for always understanding me and pushing me to be a better person no matter what you were going through. I love you Uncle Russell, always.

“ Uncle Russ I love you dearly and I will miss you so much! The memory of you walking up the hall with your white t shirt and crocks will forever be in my heart. And I will always cherish the time me and you went shopping for you some tennis shoes at Dunhams sport. After about an hour and a half of looking you had finally found the pair you wanted and I remember thinking thank God. lol You called me later on a week or so later and told me how much you liked your shoes and it made me smile. If you knew my Uncle Russ you would know he kept his shoes in pretty good shape. It's the small things that make you so special. And you my Uncle are so special. You have taken a piece of my heart with you. And my little Reagan is going to miss her Uncle Johnny. You will always be her Uncle Johnny and my uncle Russ!
