“ Sandy was so brave to have surgery on her brain cancer. That was her tenacious way of wanting to get whatever is next behind her. She was such a loving, caring and sharing person and will be missed dearly by her family and friends. It has always been our honor that she was our friend and it meant so much to me that she visited me in the hospital on the same day she was having a brain scan. She truly shared her love.

Our best to Billy and Mandy.

“ Even though I've only known Sandy for the past several years that she's worked with Graham at his office, I always found her to be a friendly, cheerful voice. I will greatly miss her contagious laugh and calming demeanor. She was a wonderful, beautiful person. Love and prayers to Billy and family.
