“ Ed, Lou and Phil

Paul and I are out of town this weekend and wanted so send our symphathies to you in the loss of your mother. I know Sarah is in a beter place and she has been ill for some time but the passing of our parents is alway hard and will always hurt more than we believe.

I also wanted to let you know how much we always appreciated your mothers kindness when we moved from the north. To this day your mother is the only one on Mountain road that openly welcomed us to the south. She always invited Kyle to vacation bible school when he was young and accepted the fact that we were not Baptist but all brothers and sisters of god.

Please know that you are in our thoughts and prayers as ou go through this difficult time in your life.

Sincerely,

Paul and Barb Yacevich##imported-begin##paul and barb yacevich##imported-end##
