“ Joie I miss the days we hung out at your house. Your mom and dad both always welcomed me and it felt like home. We have lost touch in the past year. I wish I could have been there for you, your mom and your sister. Always remember dad's not sick any longer and he's in a much better place than we are. My thoughts and prayer are with you and your family from years past and years from now. I love each of you. He will always be laughing at you, with you and watching as you grow older.##imported-begin##AngelaMartin Blevins##imported-end##

“ Dear Family and Friends,
Sergeant Lloyd Kennington was a special person to me, I was his Captain when he retired from service at Piedmont Correctional. He was a devoted employee and dedicated to the Second Shift where he spent his entire career. I will never forget the day that he came to my office just before line-up and told me that he was going to go out, because he and his wife had talked about it the night before and they thought that was the best thing for him to do. Lloyd was noticeably upset as was I.
Lloyd was a close friend as well as employee and helped many Officers at PCI with part time employment in the waterproofing business. I will miss him greatly, he was kind, honest, generous man and was a mentor to many Correctional Officers.
I am very fortunate to have known Lloyd and I appreciate his wisdom and guidance over the years.

With Love and Prayers,
Captain (ret.) Ronnie Strickland##imported-begin##Ronnie Strickland##imported-end##
