“ The Swicegood family took me on as "one of their own" when I moved to Salisbury in 1989. Weekly Sunday dinners at Nancy and Pop Carl's house were such a treasure and I considered Sheila, Janet and Barbie like sisters.

Though I moved away from the area in 2002 and didn't keep up frequent contact with her, Sheila and I would catch up every few months on Facebook.

Her smile and laugh were so amazing and she had such a sarcastic and hilarious personality. I will dearly miss her and am praying for the rest of the family as they work through this loss.
