“ Sherry was technically my cousin by marriage but in reality she was my big sister. I can't remember the time before "Sherry and Ed". I do remember when Eddie drove up and helped Sherry out of the car, it was the first time I'd seen him in his uniform, and I yelled "Sherry got arrested!!!!!!!!!!!!!!" She laughed, Mom didn't. Love you Sherry. Thank you for being part of my family!

“ Sherry and I met when she worked at the Pinellas County Tax Collector's office. We hit it off right from the start. People would see us together while out to lunch and thought we were sisters. Well, she was like a sister to me. I will miss her very much, but I know she is with our Savior, Jesus Christ, up in paradise. God Bless you my friend, my sister. We will see each other again someday. My deepest condolences to Ed, Erin, Scott and the entire family. All of you are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Sherry was my best friend and the person I knew the longest. I met Sherry in middle school in Bricktown NJ. My heart is in pieces. I will miss her so much.

I was still in contact with her up until a few hours before she made her final trip to heaven. Sherry was one I called a BEST friend!! She was compassionate, caring, understanding, loyal and loving and so much more!!.

One of my last posts to her was ( I can't wait to see a video of you running up and down the street) in reference to her new knee she had gotten replaced 2 days before. Little did I know that I would never see that video, but, see her running the magnificent roads of gold when I see her again.

I can't say enough good about MY Sherry. In the last 2 days I live in a blurr with my eyes in a constant weep.

I keep wanting to call her, I keep wanting to send her those short little personal messages. I keep thinking this is a dream. I keep thinking about her loved ones, especially her daughter Erin and her grandchildren that she loved beyond measure that will have to go each day without her.

I think about me, yes, me that will not get those hearts on my posts and the "I love you" responses back to me, not just a "luv you" But an "I LOVE YOU" or "I LOVE YOU TOO" and I knew they were genuine, because that is what Sherry is to me. I loved her and she loved me!

Sherry was the one person that knew me and understood me more than anyone, we had a special bond, she knew what that bond was and she understood all of it. Erin knows what that bond is, it's a bond and understanding only few people know, it's a special bond. I hope I can continue that special bond with Erin. I'm sure Sherry would approve.

I know where you are Sherry, I can see you sitting with all those you loved that are with you and can even see my mother that you also loved sitting in a beautiful perfect garden filled with the most beautiful flowers and hundreds of cardinal birds that you loved, perched on your shoulder. I can see you in the most perfect place, heaven. That gives me some peace, but, I WILL MISS YOU SO MUCH !!

I'll see you in that garden and we will run the streets of gold. We will still be best friends. I LOVE YOU!!

“ Sherry and I were friends since elementary school. We always wished we could have lived closer to one another as we always got along so well. As we grew up, we lost track of one another until Sherry found me on Facebook. She was the same kind, compassionate, beautiful person I remembered. My heart is broken and I send my deepest sympathies to her family. I will miss our conversations and her loving spirit.

“ I met Sherri about 25 yrs ago when i worked on her car. She helped me through the toughest part of my life, my divorce. We remained friends ever since. We would talk by phone usually once a week and text. Bar none she was the kindest person I've ever known.
