“ I've knew Tom for many years. From upstate New York in fact. I always respected and admired him. He was a positive role model for me in my teen years and had a significant role in my career path. Thank you Tom. Peace be with you. In loving memory. Jim

“ My husband (Jim Blakeslee), our son (Adam Miller), and I (Jennifer Blakeslee) were invited by Tom and his late wife, Jane, to stay at their home during two of our road trips from Arizona to Salisbury in years past. It was always a pleasure to be with them, and they went out of their way to make us feel welcome. We loved their backyard with the bird houses and beautiful flowers and other vegetation. Tom immediately knew the names of all the flowers and also all the birds that would congregate in his lovely back yard. In 1996, when my daughter, Jessica, got married, Tom and Jane came to Phoenix to take part in the festivities. They brought us a Schefflera plant as a gift. Over the years, that original plant has produced many offshoots, all of which have continued to flourish ever since. Another special memory I have is that Tom (& Jane) were experts at solving jigsaw puzzles.

We feel blessed to have known Tom, and are glad to have such happy memories of our times with him.

“ I was privileged to have Tom as my uncle. He was always loving and kind and generous towards us. We shared many happy memories especially Christmas Eve celebrations together as a family. He and his wife, Aunt Jane , were always so thoughtful and helpful to our family. They were some of our most faithful supporters as we served in Africa for 12 years as missionaries with our four children.

I remember whenever Uncle Tom would have a surgery coming up , he would always say it's going to be a " piece of cake." He tried to keep a positive attitude about his health, even though he had many health issues.

In recent years after Aunt Jane's death , we looked forward to seeing him for weekly family meals and to celebrate family birthdays together. We will certainly miss his quiet ,gentle Spirit and loving ways.

We say thank you heavenly Father for allowing us to share in the life of Uncle Tom. He was a huge blessing to everyone of us!

I second my mom's post. Uncle Tom and Aunt Jane always would remember our birthdays and would always host our Christmas Eve parties. Tom was intelligent, thoughtful and kind and will be missed!
