

Sue Palmer Fisher

November 30, 1941 - March 4, 2026

Sue Palmer Fisher, 84, peacefully exchanged her earthly time for eternity with our Lord on Wednesday, March 4 at the Glenn A. Kiser Hospice House. She was greeted in Heaven by our Lord and her husband, Paul E. Fisher, who passed before her on October 30, 2020.

Sue was born to the late Charles Steven and Hazel Holder Palmer of Rowan County on November 30, 1941. She was educated at North Rowan High School proudly representing her school as the NRHS Homecoming Queen in 1959. She graduated from Salisbury Business College and began her career at F&M Bank until she started her family. Sue was involved in many community organizations through the years. She loved the PTA and became the chair of her children's Granite Quarry Elementary, Erwin Middle School, and East Rowan High School PTAs. She loved serving as the Chair of the Salisbury YMCA and YMCA County Board. She held leadership roles at Rowan Helping Ministries, Salisbury Community Care Clinic, Rowan Museum, Historic Salisbury Foundation, RSS Communities in Schools, and Nazareth's Children's Home.

Despite her numerous achievements, Sue considered her greatest accomplishment to be her two children, ten grandchildren, and seven great grandchildren. She placed high importance on family and particularly enjoyed fun adventures with them. Her goals for her children and grandchildren were to always to serve Christ, to receive a strong educational background, and to pursue a profession that would be fulfilling. Most recently, she fought her illness with grace and humility, clinging to the scriptures from Romans 5:3-5. She cherished her family and friends dearly.

Proceeding her in death, were her parents, her husband, the late Paul E. Fisher of Salisbury, her sister Mackie Ann, and her husband Charles Honeycutt of Salisbury. She is survived by her two children, Paula Fisher Philpot (Irv) of Greenville, SC, and Jacob Steven Fisher (Robin) of Salisbury, NC, and ten grandchildren: including Bo Philpot (Rachel), Kirby-Annah Philpot, HopeEllen Philpot Turner (Alan), PollyRose Philpot O'Neill (Lee), SamcieJoe Philpot Barrett (Carson), Bubba Philpot (Erin), ElizaPearl Philpot, Banks Fisher (Lauren), Maxwell Fisher, and Jackson Fisher. She is also cherished by her seven great grandchildren – Hank, Tripp, Daisy, ScottieJoe, Teddy, AnnePalmer, and EllieJames.

Although she lived a very public life in Salisbury, it was her desire that her final journey be an intimate celebration with her immediate family. Accordingly, a small private funeral worship service will be held at First Presbyterian Church of Salisbury, followed by a graveside service at Chestnut Hill Cemetery of Salisbury. In lieu of flowers; please consider making a donation in her memory to The Paul E. Fisher Fund of Bell Tower Green, Inc, P.O. Box 4242, Salisbury, NC 29145 or online @ www.belltowergreen.org.

Summersett Funeral Home is serving the Fisher family. Online condolences may be made at www.summersettfuneralhome.com

“ One of my favorite ladies.....one of my fondest memories that still make me chuckle! For years when I ran into Sue & asked what was new.....she would look at me and say “ Paula is having another baby”. She was always so proud of her children & grandchildren! Many prayers of comfort for the family!

“ Sue was a genuinely devoted wife and mom first but every day was a lady of southern elegance with the most beautiful smile and greeting.

Her home and garden that she and Mr Paul created and meticulously cared for was the everyday place bustling with friends dropping by to visit or grandchildren sharing lunch.

Whether you passed by the front porch various holiday details she carefully orchestrated or saw her out in her garden or a community event supporting so many across the entire county, Sue was ever present.

Her loving devotion for her two children and the grandchildren and great grandchildren that blessed her life was what gave her the utmost happiness. Sue was their cheerleader and always excited to share their accomplishments.

A dear lady - who in her 80's - stayed connected on social Media , but never forgot you. She always stayed in touch using text messages of appreciation and care - she will be forever a dear friend.

Greatest love and sympathies to each of the family as she joins Mr Paul in heaven
