“ Terry was one of the finest men I've met through RC racing. We raced at the Grove and in King together. He helped my son, Michael all the time. Some, jokingly called him Michael's Daddy. He treated him that well. He is missed and will never be forgotten. We will continue to pray for him and his Family.

“ Michael, I am deeply sorry to read of the death of your brother. Although losing a loved one is never easy to deal with, our Heavenly Father gives the needed strength to cope. May you experience HIS loving care and comfort moving through this time of bereavement.

“ I would have never met Terry if not for R/C Racing. So many friends we have made have been through this sport. Terry will be missed by the many many friends he had both in and out of racing. What a great guy Terry always was at the track. Considerate of others and always willing to help.

Terry will be missed for a long time to come.

Rest in Peace and God be with you Terry
