“ The day the world changed. A mother doesn't get over something like this. It's been 7 years and I still think of my son everyday and continue to put flowers in his vase and take cake to his grave every birthday sadly I never see new flowers just the things I keep putting on his grave. He is a spectacular son

“ We are deeply sorry for your loss. We understand what you may be going through. We have lost four children and know something about the pain of it. We have a ministry called Footprints to help families in grief. This is our website: <http://www.angelfire.com/ny5/footprintsministry/index.HTML>

We use Griefshare material and you can go on www.griefshare.org and find a church near you that has this ministry too. Also have a community memorial garden called Our Children's Memorial Garden in Frazier Park to remember those who have died in our area at any age. You can adopt a brick in memory of your precious child or friend at www.ocmw.org We have families from 20 states and two foreign countries who have engraved bricks in our garden in uptown Charlotte. Our email address is jerrymudge@bellsouth.net if we can help in any way. Jerry and Skip Mudge###imported-begin##jerry Mudge###imported-end##
