“ We may forget the specific things that others do for us, but we will never forget how they made us feel. All my memories of Aunt Thelma seem to run together because I have never known a world without her. But I will never forget how she always made me feel...from the time I was a toddler to the last time I visited her at Trinity Oaks. Her smile and her saying my name made me feel special. I'm sure others felt the same. What a wonderful gift she gave to all of us.

There was something about Marvin and Thel that set them apart from the other Deals. I loved all my kinfolk, but I was particularly proud that Marvin and Thelma were kin to me. They set the bar high.

During our early years, Danny and I were raised by three mothers, Thelma, Rosanna and Polly. We could choose where we wanted to eat supper. Maybe it took all three women to keep us straight or maybe we were just blessed or maybe both. How fortunate we were to have Thelma in our lives. She will always live in us.

“ Aunt Thel had the calmest demeanor and was the most talented of all the Deal wives...Her gentleness and love was always felt by her neices and nephews and we were always welcome in her home anytime...Cindy inherited Aunt Thel's mannerisms so her blessing and love for people will live on
