“ Dear Webb Family,

Tom and I were friends for many years and some of my fondest memories of Tom are from the days of just hanging out at his gun shop. Tom's grin always had a way of somehow making you feel a little better no matter what was going on. Tom shared his testimony with me years ago and I look forward to seeing my old friend again in glory. Hopefully he will greet me at the Pearly Gates when my time comes. Tom was a good guy and will be missed by many.##imported-begin##Tony Leonard##imported-end##

“ I met Mr. Tom at Sonic in Mocksville one evening. My wife and I were sitting at a table feeding our little baby girl “dog” - Tatiana, a spoiled rotten Shih Tzu. Mr. Tom saw us and came over to join us in conversation. We spent some time together sharing stories of how we love our pets and how they add so much joy to our lives. Amazing how people meet, come and go through our lives and how they leaving lasting impressions on us, just as the love for animals leave paw prints on our hearts.##imported-begin##Brian Honeycutt##imported-end##
