“ The kind of man Mr. Miller was, how many people would invite a young man to live in their home along with his wife, son, and daughter? Very few. You were there for me during rough times in my life and there to share the good. The sad thing is all that you went through the last years of your life, it hurts my heart just thinking about it. I love you very much and you will be dearly missed. John Elliott

“ It was my high school graduation, sometime early June of 1989. Uncle T and aunt Helen had come, along with grandma and grandpa. The whole night was a bit of a blur and all I was really thinking about was the trip to the beach the next day. Uncle Tommy knew what was what, and had already made a special purchase for me, shared the first one with me and told me to be careful and remember who I was. I always have, Uncle Tommy and I always will. Just as I will always remember you.
