“ I started at the VA in May of this year and had the pleasure of Tim mentoring me for a few days. He was a pleasure to be around and he shared his abundant knowledge of nursing and the VA with me. I am saddened by his passing and my condolences goes out to his family and all loved ones. May his soul Rest in Peace!!

“ While I worked at the VA Salisbury in the early 90's, Tim and I become friends.

Hearing of his passing today has left me remembering those days so long, but not so long ago. His dog Yoko, dark blue Chrysler New Yorker, never-ending shopping (Banana Republic) and his wicked humor (mostly aimed at me.)

I had been thinking about planning a visit, but now Salisbury won't be the same now that Tim won't be there.

My heartfelt condolences to Tim's family and friends. This is truly sad news.
