“ I would like to send my deepest condolences to Anna Harrelson Vincent's mom and to his brother Victor in Vincent's recent passing. I recently ran into Vince at Rowan Cabarrus College at the North Campus in Concord while we were both taking placement test to go back to school. I must have talked with Vince for at least an hour about old times working out at the gym and about his family and mine.

Vince was never without words and was always the fun outgoing and talkative person that made me like him so much. His mom went to church with my mother at the UCC Church in Concord, NC. His mother also help my mom get a job with Social Services as an in Home Aid after my mother was laid off from the mill in the early 1990's.

I went to High School with Vince at Concord High so I had know Vince for quite some time. I can never forget the first time I saw Vince's when I joined his gym! There was this big 320 pound man walking around helping out other guys just wanting to get bigger. I think most of that mass was all heart. He was one the nicer guys I had ever met! Sorry Vince I was not here for your funeral as I just found out today of your passing! I am hurting right now knowing you are gone from us.

God Bless you!##imported-begin##Richard Colson##imported-end##

“ To the family and especially Victor, I am heartbroken and deeply saddened to learn of losing Vincent. His smiling face, kindness and gentle, friendly nature has been mentioned by all of us who were privileged to know him..he left a positive and lasting impression on his classmates and a wonderful legacy that is not achieved by everyone. I hope that this thought offers some bit of comfort.

“ I was terribly struck by the sudden passing of Vince last week. I read about it on Facebook and although I left Concord many years ago to serve in the Marines there are a few personalities like those of the Harrelson twins that have remained vivid in my memories as a young boy in Concord. Vince and his brother Victor were always happy, energetic and very strong. They always treated everyone so kindly and seemed to love life so much.

My heart is heavy with grief for the family and I pray that God will give you all the strength to endure this tremendous hardship.##imported-begin##Frankie Williams##imported-end##

“ To Mrs. Harrelson and family,

I extend to you my heartfelt sympathy and condolences on the loss of your dear son and brother. Vincent was a warm, genuine, and gentle person who made friends quickly and easily. Vince's smile, laughter, and sense of humor made his classmates feel comfortable and at ease around him. I sat next to Vincent in Dr. Miller's class last semester and in our Monday and Tuesday night classes this semester. He was such a source of hope and a person with a positive outlook. He made a lasting impression on his teachers and his classmates, and we will miss his presence at Pfeiffer. May your faith sustain you during this time of sorrow and may your cherished memories of Vincent be a source of strength and comfort. You are in our thoughts and prayers. God bless you all.

“ Sincere condolences. We are so sorry to hear of your loss. You are in our thoughts. Please know that you are not alone. Although we never had the privilege of meeting Vince, we knew his spirit; his untimely departure is unfair, for we had great things already planned. We know about his achievements and determination to be a helper to those less fortunate, sick, elders and disabled. We will remember him, and his family, in our prayers.

“ With deepest sympathy, to Vince family. My thoughts are with you in this difficult time. Vince was my classmate and home work buddy since I have started school, last year. In his final project, from last year, he announced his wish to make a difference in people life, to be humble but have strength and courage to fight the battles and clime the mountains ahead. He pointed at me and, with a firm voice but a smiling face, he said “I want to work with you, for your organization”. I was moved and grateful beyond words. I lead a nonprofit organization that plans to open a free clinic. He wanted to be part of it, and so did we. For now he will be in our prayer, for tomorrow his spirit will guide us, for later his memory will be embodied in our mission. A special hart felt thank you to Mrs. Ann Harrelson(Vince’s mother) for taking the time to call me on Thursday night and let me know about the tragedy. Though I can’t feel your pain, I do share your sorrow. Take strength in your memories, and have faith in tomorrow.

“ I was so sorry to hear about the passing of Vince. To the family: I know that there are very few words that can ease the pain. But it is my prayer that in your time of mourning, you can find comfort in God's promise to one day put an end to death, and all the pain it causes. - Revelation 21:3,4 In the meantime you are in my thoughts and prayers.##imported-begin##Kevin Johnson##imported-end##
