“ I have such wonderful memories of Mrs. File from working with her at the Vocational Workshop. What a kindred spirit she was with a ready smile and laugh to brighten any day. Any time I see a daffodil, I remember her giving me a quarter one year after I put one on her desk. She said that she had always given a quarter to the first of her children who brought a daffodil to her each year. We had many discussions about the royal family and her beloved family as well. What a joy to know her for the short time that I did. Your family is in my prayers.##imported-begin##Lori Ritchie Brault##imported-end##

“ To The File Family,

I was very sorry to hear of Nancy's passing. I will always remember her friendly "Hello" and sweet smile - someone who never met a stranger. She was a fine Christian lady who has now entered into Paradise. May God bless you and your family at this difficult time. May your fond memories also comfort you.##imported-begin##Carolyn Cauble Brown##imported-end##
