“Billie and I shared so many very enlightening experiences when I finally got to know her after Hurricane Katrina through a lady who helped me find my uncle of Bay St. Louis, MS. So many very profound memories I have of our many discussions on the phone about the seminary project which became part of my own personal apostolate for the sufferings offered up for the priesthood. God placed me, from NJ, in what I can only describe as Heaven's Providence. The excitement, joy, and elations we shared when the seminary property was finally donated. She would give me verbal details on the phone of how far things were in the planning stages of the seminary. I humbly accepted all God had been allowing me to get a bird's eye view of the seminary project through Billie. Billie, I know you have made it to Heaven, please pray for all of us. As we also will pray for you, I know your King has come for you to take you to your new home in Heaven. What a very blessed woman I am to have been providentially placed in the situation I was in which I could not have planned for. God bless her and her family, and all the many people she was affiliated with in the seminary project. I am very blessed indeed. So sorry she is gone, but, I do not doubt she has made it home. In Jesus Name we pray. Love from, Pam and Jim Nicholson. Never doubted God's plan through you.”

“ My husband and I were blessed to meet “Miss Billie” on our first pilgrimage to Fatima. It was God’s plan that I stumbled on her website and when Billie stated to my husband, “Our lady is calling you both, you just need to accept the invitation and trust,” we knew at that very moment - she was blessed. Miss Billie was a devout and Holy woman, she is beautiful inside and out. She was truly blessed and touched so many lives through her immense love for Jesus and Our Blessed Mother Mary. Mother Mary and Jesus used her as a vessel to spread His love and message to others. Her faith was everything to her as was her family and friends. Miss Billie’s legacy will continue though the Te Deum Foundation, her countless contributions to the Holy Church, and all the lives she has touched throughout her rich life.

Our condolences go out to her family and friends. Rest peacefully Miss Billie and may Our Lady of Fatima wrap you in her loving mantel for eternity.

Love,

Seán and Darlene O’Connell - Lebanon ME
