“ When Bill & Cathy lived in Anderson, SC we shared so many memories of meals together, laughter and there was always Bill adding a funny one to the conversation. We missed them terribly when they moved to Salisbury, but, like they, we knew it was for the best.

We can only send our profound thoughts and prayers to Cathy and the entire family at this difficult time. We will all miss him, the family and Cathy the most.....but time is a great healer...and having God by your side is your ultimate partner in these times.
