“ Twenty Six years ago I met Bill (Bubba) through his daughter Jennifer. I had just moved to Cabarrus county and took a job at Rack Room . At 29 it was the first time I had ever moved away from eastern North Carolina. Jenny, Sissy (Amanda) and Bill instantly became my extended family. Bill loved his girls more than life . Being from a very big close family it was heart felt to have a family like them away from mine. My Rowan and Cabarrus extends even more. The best times of my life and sear friends for life. Bubba thank you and God Speed. I retire the nickname Jackaloon . Only Bill Melchor called me that. Greatly missed but the best memories forever! I love and miss you Jenny and Amanda. He is well now.
