I was devastated to hear of Jon's passing. I met Jon in the seventh grade and he was one of my best friends through high school and as we roomed together in college. He was always a good friend, lots of fun and always there for his friends. I will miss him greatly. He was one of the best friends I have ever had.

“ My heart broke when I read the news about Jon. Jon came to the lake house on numerous occasions as he would say it "just to get away from SALISBURY" he loved going on the boat and not having to worry about someone seeing him. He could just be himself. Extremely intelligent and kind. I will miss him deeply.
