

William Eric Jordan

June 9, 2023

William Eric Jordan, 74, passed away at his home on June 9, 2023 in Salisbury, NC. He had previously lived in Keene NH, Vancouver, BC, Mud Bay, WA and Lacey WA.

William married Laura Mobberly Lansford in 1983 in Thurston, WA. They met through their shared interests in the Society for Creative Anachronism. William loved steam locomotives, and was a train operator for both full size and miniature trains as a hobby. William was a dedicated member of the Society for Creative Anachronism, and did blacksmithing, living history, performed in community theater, and read vespers at St. Luke's Episcopal Church in Salisbury NC.

William was born in Vancouver WA in 1949 to the late William Ellis Jordan, Jr and Chloris Irene Miles. He received his undergraduate degree from Whitman College, where he was a member of Phi Delta Theta. William worked at the Employment Security Department, WA for many years as a computer programmer and systems engineer. He continued his work as a systems operator, working across the country for the corporate headquarters of Robert Mondavi Wines, Safeway Supermarket Chains, and Wells Fargo Bank, where he recently retired from his job in risk management and data recovery. William received Wells Fargo's 2014 'Top Performer Service Excellence Award' for his accomplishments in Corporate Finance.

William attained a Master's of Divinity from the Vancouver School of Theology in the late 1990s.

William Eric Jordan is survived by his brother, Dana Alan Jordan and nephews Eric Jordan and Jon Jordan, niece Emily Jordan, and step-daughters Rondel Linder, Tarin Vincent and Kennan Salinero, and five grandchildren through marriage.

He was preceded in death by his wife Laura Mobberly Lansford, and his sister Cheril Lyn Jordan.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be to St. Luke's Episcopal Church, 131 West Council St, Salisbury, NC 28144 or to Rowan Helping Ministries, PO Box 4026, Salisbury, NC 28145.

Tribute Wall

“ az lit a candle in memory of William Jordan

az - June 28, 2023 at 11:48 PM