William Thomas Julian, 50, of Salisbury, went to be with his Lord and Savior Saturday, February 25, 2012, after a long struggle in the hospital. He was engaged to Michelle Brewton of Coolemees. Tommy was born January 3, 1962 to a loving family of Five siblings and his parents, Shirley Julian Deese of Salisbury and the late Everette J. Julian.

Tommy loved camping, canoeing, fishing, water skiing, and his family. He was better known as "TT"(Talking Tommy) in circles from High Rock Lake to the Nantahala River. He never met a stranger. Tommy loved to talk about his savior, Jesus Christ, his daughter, Laurel Fawn Julian currently a RN student at RCCC, and anything else that came to mind.

“ Tommy fought a good fight. He didn't want to give up. He knew the loss it would be for the family. He confessed his profession of faith and we know without a doubt he is walking the streets of Jesus. I love you little brother and miss you so much. A part of us died with you but you will live forever in our hearts and memories. Love ya little bro. Your little nuisance :-))

“ I'm truly going to miss Tommy and his humor. He was a good friend and a better person than most. The Lord has gained another angel as Tommy is sitting at his side.
