

William Lewnett "Bill" West

June 23, 1947 - January 26, 2012

William Lewnett "Bill" West, 64, of Salisbury died Thursday (Jan. 26) at the W. G. Hefner VA Medical Center.

Born June 23, 1947 in Asheboro, he was the son of the late Myrtle Haywood West. He was educated in the Asheboro schools, attended Pembroke State University, Pembroke, and Radford University, Radford, VA.

Mr. West was a veteran of the US Marine Corp during the Vietnam War. He was a former member of the VFW.

He taught English in S. Korea and China for a number of years and was the owner/agent of Go West Realty, Salisbury. Mr. West served as a basketball referee and umpire for fast pitch softball.

Mr. West will be cremated and his cremains placed at the Salisbury National Cemetery Columnbarium, Statesville Blvd. location.

Tribute Wall

“ I wanted you to know that I am thinking about you at this time.##imported-begin##Cindy Misenheimer##imported-end##

January 29, 2012 at 03:37 PM