“ Wilma was a wonderful neighbor, ready to help in any way needed. We remember how she shared her home with us when we were flooded and had to find somewhere to live until our home was repaired. We often enjoyed playing cards with Wilma and her husband, Bill, and just enjoying a meal either at their home or ours. When we moved to Washington, NC, from Maryland, she and her husband became fast friends.

Our hearts go out to Dan and Phillip and their children and pray they will find courage and strength during such a trying time through Christ. our Lord.

“ Aunt Wilma was such a special person. When you were with her, she made you feel like you were the most special person. She was quick to tell an amusing story that only you and she could appreciate. She enjoyed life in such a direct way. I will miss her and send my condolences to her sons, Dan and Phillip.

“ Wilma was a special lady and sister-in-law. Bill and I enjoyed our visits with her in Little Washington and also having her as our back door neighbor for 8 years. We loved her and appreciated her very much. She's been a trooper during the past 4 years of declining health but now she's at rest. We certainly will miss our visits with her at Statesville Place. May God bless all of her family with peace and good memories. Lynne Allen
